Study Te Reo Māori at Waikato

Māori Language/Te Reo Māori

Te reo Māori is an official language of Aotearoa/New Zealand.

Are you passionate about the survival, retention and revitalisation of te reo Māori? Studying the Māori language at Waikato, you'll explore the world of te reo and its accompanying traditions while picking up vital cultural skills for today's diverse workplace. The study of te reo will enhance your identity as an individual and will help you establish a framework for other worldviews, international links and connections.

The ability to be fluent in both Māori and English has become increasingly important within a number of professional areas including education, medicine, research, media, government and tourism.

The Te Reo Māori programme at Waikato enables you to learn the language from an introductory level through to advanced. We are the only university that teaches level 3 during undergraduate study. This gives you the advantage of attaining advanced language skills before progressing to graduate level or moving into the workforce.

The first intensive te reo Māori immersion programme of its kind, Te Tohu Paetahi has paved the way for the revitalisation of te reo Māori for more than 25 years. You can gain a Diploma in Te Tohu Paetahi or credit the programme towards your first year in a Bachelor of Arts. The course returned to our Tauranga campus in 2019 and is taught by kaiako Ngairo Eruera.

Te Wiki o Te Reo Māori ki te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

Te Wiki o te Reo Māori

Nō te tau 1975, a Aotearoa i tīmata ai ki te whakanui i te Wiki o te reo Māori. Ko te 14 o Mahuru te Rā mō te Reo Māori. Koinei te rā i tukua ai te petihana reo Māori ki te Paremata i te tau 1972. I whakatūngia a te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori i raro i te Ture mō te Reo Māori 1987 me Te Ture Reo Māori 2016 kia whakatairanga i te reo Māori hei reo ora ka whakamahia ia rā.

Ko te kaupapa o te wiki mō tēnei tau ko, 'Kia kaha te Reo Māori' - 'Let's make the Māori language strong'. Mō ētahi atu kōrero me ētahi rauemi, tēnā, haere ki tewikiotereomaori.co.nz/about Māori Language week has been celebrated each year from 1975. Māori Language Day is September 14 and commemorates the presentation of the 1972 Māori language petition to parliament. The Māori Language Commission, Te Taura Whiri, was set up under the Māori Language Act 1987 and continued under Te Ture Reo Māori 2016 / Māori Language Act 2016 to promote the use of Māori as a living language and as an ordinary means of communication.

The theme for Te Wiki o te Reo Māori 2019 is 'Kia Kaha te Reo Māori' - 'Let's make the Māori language strong'. For more information and downloadable resources visit tewikiotereomaori.co.nz/about

Te Mata o te Ārero

Ko Te Mata o te Ārero te ingoa o te hōtaka mō te wiki ki te Whare Wānanga. Nā Ahorangi Pou Temara o Te Pua Wānanga ki te Ao tēnei ingoa hei tohu whakamaumahara i ngā mahi a Ahorangi Te Wharehuia Milroy mō te oranga o te reo Māori ki te Whare Wānanga nei, me te motu whānui. He hōtaka tēnei mā ngā tāngata katoa, kaimahi mai, taura mai, tāngata hapori mai. Nau mai, haere mai.

The University is proud to promote te reo Māori with Te Mata o te Ārero, a name given to the Te Wiki o te Reo programme of activities at the University of Waikato. Gifted by Professor Pou Temara of the Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Studies, Te Mata o te Ārero remembers the contribution of former Professor, Te Wharehuia Milroy to the survival of te reo Māori not only on campus but throughout Aotearoa. There are a range of events for all levels of language proficiency whether you are a staff member, student or part of our community. We'd love to see you all participating in our activities.

We acknowledge the following staff members who have provided their time and expertise to the coordination of our programme this year: Ngairo Eruera, Taha Tangitu-Huata, Marcelle Wharerau, Devon Seymour, Dean Howie, Joanna Kearney and Elle Stewart.
